

FOMIN ROMAN
RUSSIA
ALL ROUND

Roman's career began 23 years ago when he met his first poodle. Being drawing master, Roman realized himself as an artist - groomer. His style of working is characterized by an individual creative approach. In 2000 Roman founded a student program for grooming. He found simple answers to complex questions concerning balance, proportion and scissors' technique. To date, his program produced a huge number of students in different towns of Russia, China and other foreign countries. Roman achieved a high level as a professional groomer and handler. His name is associated to winning at dog shows of the highest rank.

Roman began to take part in grooming competitions since 1999. The start was a victory at the first grooming competition held in Russia. In 2000 Roman was finalist at the most prestigious grooming championship: «Oster Invitational Tournament of Champions», which took place in Berlin, as well as at "Milan Groom", held in Italy. In 2002 Roman was silver medal at the international grooming competition «Intergroom».

Today Roman is one of the famous professional groomers in different breeds. He's the owner of professional grooming schools and organizes master classes and seminars.